

2016 | Educational Programs

Learn about the area's heritage through a variety of educational programs offered to groups of all ages. Programs focus on history, frontier lifestyles, pioneer crafts, early railroading and forest eco-systems.

LIVING HISTORY PROGRAMS

Mountain Men Living History

May 10, 11, 12

Explore the life style of 1840's pioneers as trappers, traders and settlers demonstrate their skills in blacksmithing, open-hearth cooking, spinning and weaving. Learn candle making, gold panning, pioneer games and square dancing. This program includes a trip on a vintage locomotive and narrative of the California Redwood Forest.

Students: $28.00 (an adult rides for $15.00 with every four student tickets purchased)

Additional adults: $21.50

Civil War Living History

May 25, 26, 27

Relive the history and experiences of this country's Civil War. Students are mustered into historical units led by uniformed Union and Confederate soldiers. Civil War Cadet Corps Commanders guide them through demonstrations that include 1860's medical practices, spinning and weaving, camp cooking, military drills, artillery, uniforms and weapons. Top performing units are recognized at a pass and review. This package includes candle making and gold panning plus a trip on a vintage locomotive with narrative of the California Redwood Forest.

Students: $28.00 (an adult rides for $15.00 with every four student tickets purchased)

Additional adults: $21.50

EDUCATION COMES TO LIFE

Big Trees by Rail History Program

Local history is brought to life by a special rail history program. Students board vintage passenger coaches for an hour train excursion exploring the history and ecology of the famous Welch Big Trees Grove and San Lorenzo Valley. Retrace the steps of President Theodore Roosevelt when he visited 100 years ago. Included in the program is a guided walk among giant coastal redwoods along the Redwood Grove Nature Trail in Henry Cowell Redwoods State Park. Minimums of 100 paid participants are required for this package.

Students: $15.50

Additional adults: $15.50

Halloween Program

Pumpkin Train | October

Combine learning with a day of old-fashioned fun. Schedule your class to ride a vintage steam train through a majestic redwood forest to Cathedral Grove and Bear Mountain. At the summit, passengers holding tickets may select and take home a pumpkin of their choice. The Pumpkin Train operates Mondays through Fridays during the month of October.

Students: $15.00

Additional adults: $21.50
(Plus optional $5 for pumpkin)
